Ref. No: LL/BRA/005
Site Name: Bramley Inn The Street
Site Address: Bramley Tadley RG26 5BT
Parish: Bramley
National Grid Reference:

Building Type: Public House
Age From: 1833 To: 1899
Description: This inn, in the centre of Bramley on the roadside is built in the typical Beaurepaire estate style, built by Welch-Thornton, when the railway opened. It has large tudor style chimney stacks, a tiled roof, brick walls with decorative tile hanging to the upper storey. The builing has the distinctive lozenge/diamond lattice cast iron casement windows. Being on the roadside this is a very important building in the street scene. Being a pub the building has a high degree of social significance.
