This guidance document outlines the procedure that must be followed to notify us of your change of name or address.

A change in name may be due to a change in your marital status or by deed poll.

How you will need to notify us of such a change will depend on what licence(s) you hold.

The paper part of your driver's licence displays your name and address. On the photocard 'badge', only your name is displayed.

If you change your name you will need to notify us and return your paper licence for us to update. You will need to provide evidence of your change of name.

A form is attached at Section A. A fee is payable for the reissue of your badge and for a replacement paper licence.

A new paper licence and photocard 'badge' will be reissued. Once you have the new photocard 'badge', you must return your old one to the Licensing Team.

No, but you need to include all the licences you hold on the form so we can ensure all your records are updated. You can list them on an additional sheet if you need more space.

I hold more than one licence. Do I need to pay a fee for each one?

No. As long as you include all the licences you hold on the form, we will update them all at the same time and only one fee payment will be required.

What happens next?

We will update our records and you will be reissued with a new paper licence(s) for each licence you have notified us about where there is a change. All new licence(s) will be posted to you.

Driver licence holders who change their name will also be issued with a new photocard badge. In this case, both the paper licence and badge will be left at Reception for collection and you will be notified when they are ready. The old badge must be returned to the Licensing Team on collection of your new badge.

Do I have to notify anyone else?

Yes. You must notify your insurance company of any changes and take instruction from them to ensure your insurance remains valid.

What about the DVLA?

You must notify the DVLA of your change of name or address.

Driving Licence

You are required to notify the DVLA immediately of any change of name and/or address on your driving licence. You can do this online or send it to DVLA for amendment. A new driving licence will be issued free of charge unless your photograph is due for renewal and is normally delivered to you within three weeks of the DVLA receiving your application. For further information contact the DVLA on 0300 790 6801 or online at

<http://www.direct.gov.uk/en/Motoring/DriverLicensing/index.htm>

Vehicle Registration Document (V5C)

You are required to notify the DVLA of any change of name and/or address on the vehicle's V5C Registration Certificate. You should complete the relevant section on your V5C certificate and send it to the DVLA. They will send you a new V5C free of charge, usually within four weeks.

Within one calendar month of you notifying the Licensing Team you have changed your name or address, you must produce the updated DVLA V5C registration certificate and/or DVLA driving licence so that a copy can be taken for our records.

Can I still operate/drive the vehicle?

Yes, you can continue to drive and operate the vehicle while we update your licence details as long as you have suitable insurance in place and the licence(s) remains current.

How long will it take to re-issue my new licence?

The Licensing Team estimates that the application process for a change of details will take up to 10 working days.

Please note our reminder letters for Certificate of Compliance tests, medical, DBS enhanced disclosure , or renewal of the licence are sent out at least one month before they are due. They may, therefore, have been sent to your old address or addressed to your old name if you have only recently notified us of the change. Please be aware of this and take appropriate steps to ensure you are not left in a position where you are unable to work.

If you have any queries about notifying us of the change of your details, please speak to a member of the Licensing Team on 01256 844844 or email licensing@basingstoke.gov.uk
