

To: Candidates for the Election of Parish Councillors

4 May 2023

This is not intended to be comprehensive or definitive guidance nor is it intended to obviate the need for candidates/election agents to refer to the Electoral Commission's guidance.

The Returning Officer Sue Cuerden and the Electoral Services team will be happy to help with any queries where we can, but that will not extend to campaign and expenses issues, nor will it comprise legal advice – if such is required then it is for the election agent or candidate to obtain it as they see fit from the appropriate sources.

This is not intended to be obstructive, rather an attempt to clarify the proper role of the Returning Officer and protect the positions of everyone concerned.

Please read the contents of this letter carefully before completing the paperwork.

NOMINATION PAPERS AND ASSOCIATED DOCUMENTS

Please find enclosed the necessary forms for submitting a nomination.

There are a number of important points that need to be made about the submission of the nomination. Please read all the information in this letter carefully before completing the various documents.

I. Attachments to this Letter

The following are attached:

- Nomination checklist – for use by candidates to ensure that they have completed all the necessary steps prior to delivery of the nomination
- Nomination paper
- Candidate's consent to nomination
- Certificate of authorisation
- Candidate request to use emblem
- A form for requesting a copy of the register of electors
- A form for requesting a copy of the lists of absent voters

2. Electoral Commission Guidance

The comprehensive guidance produced by the Electoral Commission for candidates is available at <https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/candidate-or-agent/parish-and-community-council-elections-in-england-and-wales>

It is strongly recommended that candidates refer to the Commission's guidance throughout the election period, as necessary.

As the guidance runs to around 150 pages, you may not wish to print all of it.

3. Delivery of Nomination Papers

The Notice of Election will be published on Friday 24 March 2023. Nominations may then be submitted between 10am and 4pm on any weekday, excluding bank holidays, from Friday 24 March 2023 until Tuesday 4 April 2023, inclusive.

Delivery of the Nomination Paper, Consent to Nomination and assorted paperwork MUST be by hand, and must be by the candidate, their election agent (if appointed), or the proposer or seconder of the nomination. Whilst the other necessary documents may be sent by post it is clearly desirable for all documentation to be delivered with the nomination.

Delivery must be to the Returning Officer, Electoral Services, Deanes, Civic Offices, London Road, Basingstoke, RG21 4AH.

An appointment must be made for the delivery of the nomination. Please call 01256 845467 or email electoral.services@basingstoke.gov.uk

It is also strongly recommended that you try to organise the submission of the nomination ahead of the last day if at all possible.

Additionally, draft nominations may be sent as a scanned email attachment to jack.grounds@basingstoke.gov.uk for an informal check in advance of your attendance for delivery – and this should also save time at the formal delivery.

Please copy any such email to electoral.services@basingstoke.gov.uk

Once the nomination paper has been submitted and formally accepted, it cannot be amended.

4. Validity of Nomination

To be valid, a nomination must be accompanied by

- (i) the consent form, duly completed;
- (ii) a certificate authorising the party description to be used by the candidate (unless there is no description, or the description is "Independent"). Candidates may also use a description of up to 6 words; provided the description is not deemed to be misleading, offensive or could be confused with a registered political party.

All of these are referred to in the following paragraphs, and dealt with comprehensively in the Electoral Commission guidance.

5. Consent to nomination

A properly completed consent to nomination is required for the nomination to be valid.

6. Home Address Form

The home address form must be completed. The candidate can indicate if they wish their home address to be excluded from the ballot paper and published election notices.

7. Certificate of Authorisation and Use of Party Emblem

If the Candidate wishes to use a description other than “Independent” then the certificate of authorisation is required to be submitted during the nominations period.

It is essential that

- (i) the person who signs the authorisation is empowered to do so by the registered nominating officer for the political party concerned;
- (ii) the description is either one of the descriptions registered by the party concerned or the name of the party as registered; and
- (iii) What is entered on the certificate matches precisely the registered name or description and the description included on the nomination paper.

There is also a form which may be used by the candidate to request the printing of a party emblem on the ballot paper.

Please be aware that:

- (i) this request has to be made by the candidate; and
- (ii) if the party concerned has registered more than one emblem, the request must make it clear which one is to be used. The wording must match the description registered with the Electoral Commission.

Please note that the register of political parties can be accessed via <http://search.electoralcommission.org.uk/>, and that information and guidance about registering and maintaining a party is available at <https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/party-or-campaigner/political-parties/political-parties-pef-online-and-forms>.

8. Notification/Appointment of Election Agent

Candidates at parish elections do not have agents as they are their own agent. Therefore there is no form within the nomination pack to appoint an agent.

9. Uncontested elections

If the Returning Officer receives more nominations than the number of vacant seats, there will be an election on Thursday 4 May 2023. If there are fewer nominations than the number of vacancies, all validly nominated candidates will be elected and the parish council will then be able to co-opt to any remaining vacancies.

10. Meeting with Candidates and Parish Clerks

The Returning Officer will be holding a Candidates and Clerks briefing for the Parish Council elections. The briefing will be held at the Committee Room, Civic Offices, London Road, Basingstoke RG21 4AH. This will be a hybrid meeting and a Microsoft Teams link will be sent to attendees if they wish to join a briefing remotely.

6pm Thursday 15 February 2023.

This session will cover the nomination period, the role of the candidate, the campaign, polling day and the count. It will also cover access to the electoral register and the security of data.

11. Election Campaign and Election Expenses

More information about the election campaign and election expenses is included in Part 3 of the Electoral Commission guidance.

As soon as possible after the close of nominations, we will supply the necessary forms for the declaration and return of expenses. The Electoral Commission has made a version of the returns available in Excel format, which you may find convenient to use before printing for signature and return.

If you would like to access these in the meantime, they are available to download from the resources section of part 3 of the page at

<https://www.electoralcommission.org.uk/i-am-a/candidate-or-agent/parish-and-community-council-elections-in-england-and-wales> in both Excel and pdf formats.

It should be noted that it is not the role of the Returning Officer to be concerned with or to provide advice on these issues.

Should you require advice, then it may be sought from your Party (if you have one) or from the Electoral Commission.

Regarding expenses:

- the statute requires the returns and declarations to be submitted by no later than 35 calendar days after the day when the result is declared, i.e. by no later than Friday 9 June 2023.
- It is an illegal practice to fail to submit the return and declaration or to submit a defective return, and a corrupt practice to make a false declaration. You must submit a declaration of expenses even if no expense has been incurred and/or the election was not contested. A person found guilty of a corrupt practice is, in general, liable to imprisonment, or to a fine, or to both, and is disqualified for five years from being registered as an elector, voting or holding any elective office, and a person found guilty of an illegal practice is liable to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale (understood to be £5000) and is disqualified from being registered as an elector, voting or holding elective office for three years.

Finally, the maximum permissible expenses is based on the calculation of £806 plus 7p for each elector on the register for the ward as at the date of the publication of the notice of election. The Returning Officer will update you as to this figure.

The Commission's guidance refers to the maximum amounts and also explains what constitutes the "regulated period".

However, a registered political party may make a request for the register at any time, via its registered nominating officer, or by someone authorised by that person for a particular constituency.

2. Where a candidate is commonly known by some title they may be described by their title as if it were their surname.

4. But the ballot paper will show the other name if the returning officer thinks that the use of the commonly used name may
 - (a) be likely to mislead or confuse electors, or
 - (b) that the commonly used name is obscene or offensive.
5. An elector may not –
 - (a) subscribe more nomination papers than there are vacancies to be filled in the electoral area in which the election is held; or
 - (b) subscribe a nomination paper for more than one ward in a parish divided into wards.
6. In this form 'elector' –
 - (a) means a person whose name is registered in the register of local government electors for the electoral area in question on the last day for the publication of notice of election; and
 - (b) includes a person then shown in the register as below voting age if (but only if) it appears from the register that he will be of voting age on the day fixed for the poll.
7. However, a person who has an anonymous entry in the register of local government electors cannot nominate a candidate for election.
